ABOUT ALMA NEGRA

Alma Negra is an Argentine winery located in Mendoza founded by fourth-generation winemaker Ernesto Catena. Over the years, Ernesto and his team designed their biodynamic farm and vineyard as a sculpture to be gazed upon from the sky, much like the cities of the Mayan and Incan civilizations. The vineyard is surrounded by natural flora and fauna that help them achieve a state of harmony and equilibrium. Alma Negra means Black Soul and was named for the deep, intense color of wines made from the Bonarda grape.

THE WINE

- Alma Negra M is a red wine from Mendoza, Argentina.
- To avoid misconceived notions of how the wine should taste, founder Ernesto Catena does not share technical details about Alma Negra wines, leaving the grape varieties a mystery for the taster to discover.
- Dense, dark, and intriguing aromas of dark berries and coffee with a wonderful earthy aroma.
- Smooth, with rounded tannins, the wine is long-lasting and offers notes of cooked ripe blackcurrants.
