POMMARD 1ER CRU
CLOS DE VERGER

General Characteristics:
Grape variety: Pinot Noir
Production: about 2,000 bottles a year.
Area: 32-92 Ha.
Age of vines: 40 years.

Territory:
Almost a monopoly, the 1er cru Clos de Vergers faces south; therefore, it is roasting in the middle of the afternoon on a slight slope that adjoins the village of Pommard.

Vinification
Manual harvest.
Pneumatic pressing.
Maturing in 100% barrels.
Bottling after 12 months of maturing.

Tasting Notes:
All in silk and lace, it will be served with game birds, a piece of veal or a sublime steak of beef. The wine is elegant and subtle, a feminine Pommard

Aging:
To be enjoyed between 5 to 10 years.
