CUVÉE D BRUT

1846 Devaux CHAMPAGNE VEUVE A.DEVAUX

THE FLAGSHIP DEVAUX STYLE

Freshness & Complexity: this champagne is rich and complex – with up to 40% reserve wines that are aged in Solera from over 11 different crus. Crafted in the Brut style, it blends the richness of Pinot Noir with the elegance of Chardonnay.

Meticulous Viticultural Practices: each parcel of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay used to craft our Cuvée D is rigorously selected, and sustainable vineyard practices (HVE) are utilized to preserve the bright fruit characteristics of each grape.

Winemaking Precision: only the "coeur de cuvée" – or first press juice – is used, and each parcel is fermented separately, then blended and aged on lees for a minimum of 7 years.*

The first Champagne House to use the solera technique since the 1990s

Extended aging time: more than twice that required by the AOC

Additional resting time of 3 to 12 months after disgorging, depending on the vintage and format

*1.5L aged minimum of 7 years; 750mL aged minimum of 5 years
