OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, created by the Constitution of 1876, is a public institution of higher learning. It is the responsibility of the Board of Regents to ensure that the University provides a high quality education for all students, regardless of their background or financial resources. The Board of Regents is composed of representatives from various parts of the state, and it oversees the operations of the University, including the selection of the President and the allocation of funds.
