53322 - Fresh White Finish

Through its casual style and charming appearance, the Newsome will compliment your décor without overpowering it. The clean line details throughout the fan body and blade irons work together to create a coherent design with wide appeal. The 52-inch blade span will fit any standard or large room space, and this fan is damp-rated so you can place it in a covered porch or any area with lots of moisture. And remember, with the Newsome Collection you have the freedom to choose from many different sizes, light kits, and other options to maintain a consistent look throughout every room in your home.
