

Business 1: Foundations

Business is a social activity that involves the production and distribution of goods and services.

Business is a social activity that involves the production and distribution of goods and services.

Business is a social activity that involves the production and distribution of goods and services.

Business is a social activity that involves the production and distribution of goods and services.

