

KINGSTON

4 Steps to the Best Paper-Cover
Reference Treatment

1. The book is shown in a perspective view, highlighting the spine and the front cover. The cover is made of paper and is attached to the spine with a binding.

2. The book is shown in a perspective view, highlighting the spine and the front cover. The cover is made of paper and is attached to the spine with a binding.

3. The book is shown in a perspective view, highlighting the spine and the front cover. The cover is made of paper and is attached to the spine with a binding.

4. The book is shown in a perspective view, highlighting the spine and the front cover. The cover is made of paper and is attached to the spine with a binding.