

The diagram illustrates the relationship between the hand's position and the pen's position. The scale indicates that the hand is positioned at the 100% mark, which corresponds to the pen's position.

The diagram illustrates the relationship between the hand's position and the pen's position. The scale indicates that the hand is positioned at the 50% mark, which corresponds to the pen's position. The blue box indicates that the pen is positioned at 40% of the scale.