

PROBATION

Probation is a court-ordered period of supervision for individuals who have been convicted of a crime. It is often used as an alternative to incarceration for first-time offenders or those with non-violent offenses. Probation officers monitor the individual's behavior, ensure they comply with court orders, and provide support and resources as needed. Violations of probation can result in a return to prison.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Criminal justice is the system of laws and procedures that govern the actions of individuals who have committed crimes. It involves the investigation, prosecution, and punishment of offenders. The system includes law enforcement agencies, the courts, and correctional facilities. The goal of the criminal justice system is to maintain public safety, deter crime, and provide justice for victims and society.

KINGSTON

Kingston is a city located in the state of New York. It is the largest city in the state and is known for its rich history and cultural heritage. The city is home to many museums, theaters, and historical landmarks. It is also a major center for education and research, with several universities and colleges located there.