

ENCLOSURES

1. The first enclosure is a simple rectangular box with a lid. It is made of cardboard and is painted white. The lid is decorated with a pattern of spots and lines. The box is used to hold the butterfly when it is not flying.

2. The second enclosure is a more complex structure. It is made of cardboard and is painted white. It has a lid and a base. The lid is decorated with a pattern of spots and lines. The base is decorated with a pattern of spots and lines. The enclosure is used to hold the butterfly when it is not flying.

3. The third enclosure is a simple rectangular box with a lid. It is made of cardboard and is painted white. The lid is decorated with a pattern of spots and lines. The box is used to hold the butterfly when it is not flying.