

QUESTION

1. The project manager is reviewing the project charter and the project management plan. The project manager is reviewing the project management plan to ensure that the project management plan is aligned with the project charter. The project manager is reviewing the project management plan to ensure that the project management plan is aligned with the project charter.

QUESTION

2. The project manager is reviewing the project charter and the project management plan. The project manager is reviewing the project management plan to ensure that the project management plan is aligned with the project charter. The project manager is reviewing the project management plan to ensure that the project management plan is aligned with the project charter.