

The graph shows a clear downward trend in the value over the years. The value starts at approximately 100 and decreases steadily, reaching about 20 by the end of the period shown. This indicates a significant and consistent decline in the measured variable.

Line Graph

The graph shows a clear upward trend in the value over the years. The value starts at approximately 20 and increases steadily, reaching about 100 by the end of the period shown. This indicates a significant and consistent increase in the measured variable.