

The graph illustrates the growth of the economy over a period of 12 years. The value starts at 10 in the first year and generally increases, reaching 45 by the end of the period. There are several years of fluctuation, particularly in the early and middle stages, but the overall trend is positive.

LINGSTON

The graph illustrates the growth of the economy over a period of 8 years. The value starts at 10 in the first year and increases steadily, reaching 45 by the end of the period.