The following table shows the financial performance of the company from 2017 to 2023. The revenue has increased steadily over the period, while expenses have also increased but at a slower rate than revenue. As a result, the profit has remained relatively stable, indicating that the company is able to manage its costs effectively.

The chart illustrates the company's financial performance over a seven-year period. The revenue (blue line) shows a consistent upward trend, starting at 100 in 2017 and reaching 130 by 2023. The expenses (red line) also show an upward trend, starting at 80 in 2017 and reaching 110 by 2023. The profit (green line) remains relatively stable, starting at 20 in 2017 and ending at 20 in 2023. This indicates that the company is able to manage its costs effectively, maintaining a steady profit margin.
