

The graph shows a direct relationship between the number of hours worked and the amount of money earned. The line starts at the origin (0,0) and passes through the points (10, 20), (20, 40), (30, 60), and (40, 80). This indicates that for every hour worked, the person earns $20.

QUESTION

The graph shows a direct relationship between the number of hours worked and the amount of money earned. The line starts at the origin (0,0) and passes through the points (10, 20), (20, 40), (30, 60), and (40, 80). This indicates that for every hour worked, the person earns $20.