

STAMP

The stamp is a rectangular piece of paper with a perforated edge on the left side. It features a large, stylized illustration of a person's face and upper torso, looking upwards and to the right. The illustration is rendered in a high-contrast, almost graphic style. Below the illustration, there is a block of text, likely a message or a set of instructions, which is partially obscured by the image quality. The text appears to be in a sans-serif font.
