

U.S. economy is in good shape, but inflation is a concern. The graph shows that while the economy is generally viewed as being in good shape, inflation remains a significant concern for many Americans. The percentage of people who are 'Very satisfied' or 'Somewhat satisfied' with the U.S. economy has generally increased over the past decade, reaching a high of 80% in 2023. However, the percentage of people who are 'Very dissatisfied' or 'Somewhat dissatisfied' with the U.S. economy has also increased, reaching a high of 20% in 2023. This suggests that while the economy is generally viewed as being in good shape, inflation remains a significant concern for many Americans.
