

PROBLEM 1

Two identical particles, each of mass m , are moving towards each other with equal speeds v in the xy -plane. They collide and stick together. The velocity of the combined mass is v_f . The angle between the initial velocity of one of the particles and the final velocity is θ . Find θ and v_f in terms of v .

