

QUESTION 1

Two identical particles, each of mass m , are suspended from a common point by two strings of length l . The particles are released from rest at an angle θ to the vertical. Find the speed of each particle just before they collide.

