

The diagram shows a large triangle with vertices labeled α , β , and γ . Inside it is a smaller triangle with vertices labeled α' , β' , and γ' . The diagram illustrates the relationship between the two triangles, possibly representing a transformation or a specific geometric property.

The diagram shows a large triangle with vertices labeled α , β , and γ . Inside it is a smaller triangle with vertices labeled α' , β' , and γ' . The diagram illustrates the relationship between the two triangles, possibly representing a transformation or a specific geometric property.