

PROBLEM 10.1

Two identical particles, each of mass m , are released from rest at the top of the smooth curved surface of height h . The particles are released from rest at the top of the smooth curved surface of height h .

