

THEORY

1. The first part of the theory discusses the basic concepts of the subject. It covers the following topics: (a) Introduction to the subject, (b) The importance of the subject, (c) The scope of the subject, (d) The objectives of the subject, (e) The methods of the subject, (f) The results of the subject, (g) The applications of the subject, (h) The future of the subject, (i) The conclusion of the subject, (j) The references of the subject.

| Sl. No. | Name of the Candidate | Grade |
|---------|-----------------------|-------|
| 1 | ... | ... |
| 2 | ... | ... |
| 3 | ... | ... |
| 4 | ... | ... |
| 5 | ... | ... |
| 6 | ... | ... |
| 7 | ... | ... |
| 8 | ... | ... |
| 9 | ... | ... |
| 10 | ... | ... |

DISCUSSION

The discussion part of the report provides a detailed analysis of the theoretical concepts. It includes the following sections: (a) Discussion on the importance of the subject, (b) Discussion on the scope of the subject, (c) Discussion on the objectives of the subject, (d) Discussion on the methods of the subject, (e) Discussion on the results of the subject, (f) Discussion on the applications of the subject, (g) Discussion on the future of the subject, (h) Discussion on the conclusion of the subject, (i) Discussion on the references of the subject.