Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;³ Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; ⁴ He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.⁵ After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.⁶ Then cometh he to Simon Peter; and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?⁷ Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.⁸ Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.⁹ Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.¹⁰ Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not to save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit; and ye are clean, but not all.¹¹ For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.¹² So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?¹³ Ye call me Master and Lord; and ye say well; for so I am.¹⁴ If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.¹⁵ For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.¹⁶ Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.¹⁷ If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.¹⁸ I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen; but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.¹⁹ Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.²⁰ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.²¹ When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.²² Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.²³ Now there were two in a room, and one of the disciples, Simon Jesus, saith unto him, Master, is it thou that is beckoned to him? that is to say, is it thou whom he speaketh?²⁴ He answereth and saith unto him, Lord, it is thou; Jesus answered, and said, It is to whom I shall give sop; when I have dipped sop in it, to whom I shall give sop, when I have dipped sop in it, when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot.

the son of Simon.²⁵ And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.²⁶ Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.²⁷ For some of them thought, because Jesus had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.²⁸ He then having received the sop went immediately out; and it was night.²⁹ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.³⁰ If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.³¹ Little children, let a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me, and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you,³² A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another;³³ as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.³⁴ By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.³⁵ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whence goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but when thou shalt follow me afterwards,³⁶ Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.³⁷ Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

¹ Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me.² In my Father's house are many mansions; if there were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.⁴ And whether I go ye know, and the way ye know.⁵ Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whether thou goest; and how can we know the way?⁶ Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh into the Father, but by me.⁷ If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also; and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.⁸ Philip saith unto him, Show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.⁹ Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet ye have not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how savest thou then, Show us the Father?

far from the city Adam, that is beside Zarethan; and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off; and the people passed over right against Jericho. ¹¹ And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

¹ And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over Jordan, that the Lord spoke unto Joshua, saying, ² Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man, ³ And command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where ye shall lodge this night. ⁴ Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man. ⁵ And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the Lord your God into the midst of Jordan, and take you every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel: ⁶ That this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones? ⁷ Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off; and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever. ⁸ And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the Lord spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. ⁹ And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there unto this day. ¹⁰ For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until everything was finished that the Lord commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hasted and passed over. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the Lord passed over, ¹² And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half
