

The diagram illustrates the concept of similar figures. A large triangle is shown with a smaller triangle inside it, sharing the same shape but different sizes. This is a classic example of similarity in geometry.

This diagram shows two triangles that are similar. The larger triangle is a scaled-up version of the smaller one, demonstrating the concept of similarity in geometry.

QUESTION

40/40
 100%