

STANDARD

1. The first part of the document is a title page containing the name of the organization and the title of the project. This is followed by a table of contents which lists the chapters and their corresponding page numbers. The main body of the document consists of several chapters, each dealing with a different aspect of the project. The chapters are written in a clear and concise style, and are well organized and easy to read. The document concludes with a summary of the findings and a list of references.

Chapter	Page
1. Introduction	1
2. Background	5
3. Methodology	10
4. Results	15
5. Discussion	20
6. Conclusion	25
7. References	30

KINGSTON

1. The second part of the document is a section titled 'KINGSTON'. This section contains a large, stylized drawing of a person in a dynamic pose, possibly a dancer or a performer. Below this drawing is a small graphic element consisting of a square frame containing a stylized figure or symbol. The overall style of the document is clean and professional, with a focus on clear communication and visual appeal.