

Cambridge

Cambridge is a city in the county of Cambridgeshire, England, situated on the east bank of the River Great Ouse, about 30 miles (48 km) north of London. It is one of the most important centres of higher education in the United Kingdom, with the University of Cambridge, founded in 1209, being one of the oldest and most prestigious universities in the world. The city is also a major centre of research and innovation, particularly in the fields of science, technology, and engineering.

The city is home to a number of world-class institutions, including the University of Cambridge, the Cambridge Institute of Technology, and the Cambridge Centre for Alternative Finance. The city is also a major centre of research and innovation, particularly in the fields of science, technology, and engineering. The city is home to a number of world-class institutions, including the University of Cambridge, the Cambridge Institute of Technology, and the Cambridge Centre for Alternative Finance.

The city is also a major centre of research and innovation, particularly in the fields of science, technology, and engineering. The city is home to a number of world-class institutions, including the University of Cambridge, the Cambridge Institute of Technology, and the Cambridge Centre for Alternative Finance.

