

PROBLEM 10.1

Two beams, A and B, are supported by a single vertical roller support at their right ends. The beams are connected to each other and to the support by a single vertical member, as shown. The beams are subjected to the loads shown. Neglect the weight of the beams.

Find the reactions at the roller support.

