

TEXT

QUESTION TYPES

John Snow (1813-1858) was an English physician and a pioneer of modern medicine who disproved the miasma theory of disease causation.

1. Name

1. What was John Snow's profession?
2. What was his contribution to medicine?
3. What theory did he disprove?
4. What was his nationality?

2. Where

1. Where was John Snow born?

3. When

1. When did John Snow live?
2. When did he disprove the miasma theory?

4. How

1. How did John Snow disprove the miasma theory?
2. How did he contribute to modern medicine?
3. How was he a pioneer of modern medicine?
4. How did he become an English physician?

5. Why

1. Why did John Snow disprove the miasma theory?
2. Why was he a pioneer of modern medicine?

6. What

1. What was John Snow's profession?
2. What was his contribution to medicine?
3. What theory did he disprove?
4. What was his nationality?
5. What was his birth year?
6. What was his death year?

7. How

1. How did John Snow disprove the miasma theory?
2. How did he contribute to modern medicine?
3. How was he a pioneer of modern medicine?
4. How did he become an English physician?

8. Why

1. Why did John Snow disprove the miasma theory?
2. Why was he a pioneer of modern medicine?

