

BLOCK 14

v. 2017

94 POINTS Josh Raynolds, Vinous, August 2020

93 POINTS Erin Brooks, Robert Parker Wine Advocate, December 2020

Light bodied yet viscous like water with high mineral content, the 2016 Block 14 soars across the palate like a hang glider. The wine's aromas of boysenberry, black licorice and wild rose lead to flavors of maple sugar, dark rye and golden beet. This thirst quenching, slightly salty Pinot has a texture reminiscent of juicy pomegranate and shiso leaf mélange with an everlasting finish.
