

Energy™ T5 Single-End

Energy™ T5 Single-End is a compact, energy-efficient lighting solution for a variety of applications. It features a long life span, low heat output, and is easy to install. The fixture is designed to provide a bright, uniform light output, making it ideal for use in commercial and industrial settings.

Energy™ T5 Single-End is available in a variety of finishes and lengths. The fixture is designed to be compatible with a wide range of mounting options, making it a versatile choice for a variety of applications. The fixture is also available in a variety of wattages, allowing you to choose the right fixture for your specific needs.

Energy™ T5 Single-End is a high-quality, energy-efficient lighting solution that is perfect for a variety of applications. It is a reliable, long-lasting fixture that provides a bright, uniform light output.

