

CONCRETE

Concrete is a composite material consisting of aggregate (sand, gravel or crushed stone), cement, water and sometimes admixtures and plasticizers. It is poured into formwork and cures into a solid mass that can take the shape of the formwork.

