

PROBATION

Probation is a court-ordered period of supervision for individuals who have been convicted of a crime. It is often used as an alternative to incarceration for first-time offenders or those with minor offenses. The probation officer monitors the individual's behavior and reports back to the court. Violations of probation can result in a return to prison.

RESTITUTION

Restitution is a court-ordered payment made by the offender to the victim to compensate for the financial loss or damage caused by the crime. It is often used in conjunction with other penalties. The amount of restitution is determined by the court based on the evidence presented.
