

KNOW YOUR BUS

1. The driver should always wear their seat belt and follow traffic laws.

2. The driver should always use proper lane discipline and avoid distractions.

3. The driver should always use proper signaling and avoid sudden movements.

4. The driver should always use proper spacing and avoid tailgating.

5. The driver should always use proper communication and avoid aggressive driving.

6. The driver should always use proper observation and avoid blind spots.

7. The driver should always use proper judgment and avoid risky decisions.

8. The driver should always use proper control and avoid loss of control.

9. The driver should always use proper awareness and avoid complacency.

10. The driver should always use proper responsibility and avoid negligence.

Driver's View	Driver's Responsibility	Driver's Control
1. The driver should always wear their seat belt and follow traffic laws.	1. The driver should always use proper lane discipline and avoid distractions.	1. The driver should always use proper signaling and avoid sudden movements.
2. The driver should always use proper lane discipline and avoid distractions.	2. The driver should always use proper spacing and avoid tailgating.	2. The driver should always use proper communication and avoid aggressive driving.
3. The driver should always use proper signaling and avoid sudden movements.	3. The driver should always use proper observation and avoid blind spots.	3. The driver should always use proper judgment and avoid risky decisions.
4. The driver should always use proper spacing and avoid tailgating.	4. The driver should always use proper control and avoid loss of control.	4. The driver should always use proper awareness and avoid complacency.
5. The driver should always use proper communication and avoid aggressive driving.	5. The driver should always use proper responsibility and avoid negligence.	