

QUESTION

Two identical particles, each of mass m , are suspended from a ceiling by two strings of length l . The strings are attached to a single point on the ceiling and are initially held at an angle θ to the vertical. They are then released from rest. Find the speed of each particle just before they collide.

ANSWER