The anti-stress water experience for dogs (and people).

Does washing the dog in your bathroom always end in chaos? Is the garden hose your pup's mortal enemy? The innovators at hansgrohe teamed up with dog experts and psychologists to develop the perfect solution: DogShower. The massage effect of its gentle spray is designed to be reminiscent of soothing rubs along the back, which encourage dogs to enjoy the relaxing shower experience.

What sets DogShower by hansgrohe apart:

- Less stress, less mess. Gentle, quiet water sprays and massage jets lower the stress of showering. Reduced anxiety means less splashing.
- Three spray modes. Each designed for a specific area of dog's body.
- Select button for harmoniously fluid shower sessions. Switch between spray modes at the touch of a button with ease, even one-handed. It works just like hansgrohe showers for people.
- WaterBoost technology for efficient cleaning. The water volume can be increased at the touch of a button.
- Ergonomics. The shape of the spray disc follows the form of the canine body, working as a gentle massage tool. The ergonomic handle fits comfortably in the user's hand.
- Easy to install. DogShower fits on standard handshower connections.
- Four available finishes. Available in Matte Black, Matte White, Sky Blue, and Pink. Options that will be the perfect addition to any bathroom.
