

Hood for Escape from Fire

[Applications – Features & Benefits]

[Various Applications]

- Escape from fire
- Escape from toxic areas
- Rescue teams
 - to assist in the evacuation of contaminated people even if unconscious
- Residential areas
 - Hospitals, retirement homes, hotels, office buildings, ...

[Reliable Design]

- Over 300 000 units sold
- Proven design
- High visibility
- Large field of vision
- Materials resistant against heat and short flame contact

[Performance Improved]

- One of the first hoods for escape from fire to be approved according to EN 403:2004
- Light cotton neck seal
- Ease of donning
- Protection effective within seconds [without any other specific procedure]

[Basic Data]

- Service time: 15 minutes
- Protection against gases and fumes from fire [including CO]
- Half mask and hood combination
- One universal size with adjustment straps
- Weight: approx. 540 g [ready for use]

[Storage Life]

- Factory sealed in foil bag under proper storage conditions
 - Maintenance-free for 4 years, thereafter testing is required
 - Max. shelf life: 10 years [4+4+2], stored on vehicles max. 8 years [4+2+2]