WHAT IS OUZO?

Ouzo is a potent, clear, anise-flavored spirit that is made exclusively in Greece.

THE SPIRIT OF GREECE

Ouzo is the national drink of Greece – a symbol of culture and hospitality – with Protected Geographical Indication (PGI) status.

THE HEART OF THE AEGEAN

Ouzo was first made in Plomari, a seaside town on the island of Lesbos, where the crystal-clear Aegean Sea meets fields of fragrant anise.

A PROUD GREEK LEGACY

Established in 1894 by Isidoros Arvanitis, Ouzo of Plomari remains a family-owned business – led since 1994 by the Kaloyiannis family, who represent 5 generations of spirits distillers.

INNOVATION MEETS TRADITION

- 18 copper stills
- Over 32 million bottles produced annually – exported to over 50 countries worldwide

DISTILLATION PROCESS

Ouzo of Plomari undergoes a double distillation process that lasts 18 hours – ensuring a smooth and complex flavor.

- First Distillation: water + pure grain alcohol + anise seeds
- Second Distillation: water + distillate #1 + anise seeds

OVER 15 PREMIUM BOTANICALS

- Water from the Sedountas River springs in Plomari
- Organic aniseed from family-owned fields Lisvori, Lesbos
- Spices from Evoia – star anise, green cardamom, cinnamon, nutmeg, and fennel
- Salt from Kalloni, Lesbos
- Essential oils from chios mastic gum

TASTING NOTES

- Sight: clear, crystalline, brilliantly transparent
- Aromas: fresh and intense, with vibrant anise, fennel, mint, mastic and eucalyptus
- Flavors: semi-sweet and well-balanced, with full body and intense flavors of anise, fennel and eucalyptus.

After Dilution: 1oz Ouzo of Plomari + 2oz water + 2 ice cubes

- Sight: rich, milky emulsion with subtle gray hues
- Aromas: intensely aromatic, with distinctive anise notes.
- Flavors: smooth and well-rounded, with a warm alcohol sensation and long, lingering finish.
