- Multi-generation family and negotiant

ABOUT THE BRAND

France's esteemed wine legacy is indebted to ancient monks who dedicated themselves not only to prayer but also to cultivating and preserving wine. Amidst periods of conflict, these monks safeguarded and advanced viticulture, experimenting with grape varieties to ensure its survival. Since the 1920s, Les Glories has honored these traditions, collaborating with families across France's wine regions to meticulously select varietals that reflect diverse terroirs. Our wines seamlessly blend the past and present, paying homage to the monks' stewardship and commitment.

WINEMAKING TEAM

Les Glories' focus is always to increase biodiversity, maintain and improve watersheds and the water cycle, to enhance all biological processes for carbon sequestration, to continuously increase the resilience of the ecosystems to climate change. This involves maximizing nutrients, minimum plowing, rowcropping and grassy strips.

RICH HISTORY COMES TO LIFE IN MODERN DAY LOIRE VALLEY

A "Petit Négociant" with a mission to craft classic expressions of Loire Valley appellations at exceptional values. The Foucher family brought on Jean Mounard as a new partner to pave the road ahead. Jean spent many years at the helm of a fine and rare wine brokerage business in Paris, specializing in iconic estates such as DRC, Mouton-Rothchild and Leflaive. Given his deep experience with some of the great wines of the world, Jean has been able to establish strong relationships with growers and significantly elevate the quality of the wines.
