PSYCHO

The Psycho broadhead is an animal's worst nightmare. Constructed of strong stainless steel, the three .035" laser sharpened stainless steel blades maximize damage by producing a large 1-1/4" cutting diameter. The solid one-piece stainless steel machined ferrule design maintains its accuracy and integrity shot after shot and features a bone-crushing hybrid tip.

SIPHON

This insanely sharp mechanical broadhead produces a large cutting diameter starting with the bone crushing stainless steel tip and ending with three razor-sharp .035" stainless steel blades. The internal blade locking mechanism provides reliable blade retention and prevents the blades from prematurely deploying.
