Amethystos

ESTATE & HISTORY

Our Amethystos family of wines derives its name from the amethyst, a semi-precious stone believed by ancient Greeks to prevent or cure drunkenness. Amethystos was founded in 1992 by the Domaine Costa Lazaridi estate – crafting red, white and rosé wines from indigenous and international varieties in Drama, northeast Macedonia, Greece.

TASTING NOTES

This wine is crafted from a blend of noble varieties – Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot.

Color: crystal bright, deep rosy color

Aromas: expressive with redcurrant and candied strawberry notes

Flavors: lively with great richness and acidity – including flavors of gooseberry, raspberry and wild strawberry – followed by a long, fruity finish

1

Innovative Winemaking & Blends: Drama is known for innovative blends of international and native grape varieties. Our Amethystos wines are anchored by noble varieties – Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Sauvignon Blanc and Cabernet Franc – and complemented by native varieties – Assyrtiko and Agiorgitiko – to create blends unlike any other region in the world.

2

PGI Drama: established in 1995, this Protected Geographical Indication is located in northeast Macedonia, Greece – a region with ideal soils, altitude and microclimates to grow grapes of exceptional quality across a wide range of international and native varieties.

3

Food-Friendly Offerings: well-known international varieties dominate each blend, offering consumers unique expressions of familiar grapes that pair well with a broad range of local and international cuisines.
