

BOSCARELLI
MARCHESI DE FERRARI CORRADI

“IL NOCIO” VINO NOBILE DI MONTEPULCIANO DOCG 2021

- The finest single-vineyard wine from Boscarelli
- Vigna del Nocio has been owned by Poderi Boscarelli since since 1988. It covers about two hectares at an altitude ranging between 310 meters to 350 meters above sea level.
- Benchmark producer located in historic Vino Nobile DOCG, in northeast Montepulciano, situated in the south of Tuscany.
- Founded in 1962 by Egidio Corradi, now led by daughter Paola De Ferrari Corradi and her two sons, Luca and Nicolò de Ferrari Corradi.
- Focus on expressive, terroir-driven Vino Nobile, producing traditional and riserva bottlings from prized estate vineyards.

97 WINE SPECTATOR
TOP WINES FROM TUSCANY

The superb, complex aftertaste picks up mineral and wild herb elements. Still youthful, this appears to be a long-distance runner.

