Care and use

Please retain this information for future reference. Before each use, carefully inspect the step stool for any signs of damage. To prevent injury, it is essential to use the step stool on a firm, level surface that is free from water and grease. Ensure that the step stool is securely positioned before use, and never allow more than one person to be on the step stool at any given time. This product is not a toy and is not suitable for use by young children due to the risk of hinge entrapment.
