Adcraft Coffee Percolator, 40 Cup, in Stainless Steel

CP-40

Brew large quantities of coffee quickly and consistently with the Adcraft Coffee Percolator. This 40-cup stainless steel commercial coffee percolator is perfect for restaurants, hotels, catering events, office break rooms, churches, and buffet stations. This durable stainless steel coffee percolator delivers rich, full-bodied coffee for high-volume service. Constructed from heavy-duty stainless steel, this percolator is built to withstand frequent use while remaining easy to clean and maintain. The unit is equipped with a clear water level gauge, allowing for easy monitoring of fill levels at a glance. A red indicator light signals when the coffee is done brewing.
