

Fig. 1. The relationship between plant community dynamics, species diversity, and environmental factors. The central flowchart shows the relationships between these three factors. The detailed diagram on the right shows a specific plant community structure with various species and their interactions. The legend at the bottom right explains the symbols used in the diagrams.