

Activity 1

Activity 2

For the next activity, you will be working with a partner to create a short sequence of movements. You will be given a set of instructions and you will have to work together to create a sequence of movements that follows the instructions.

