BEFORE FIRST USE

It is essential to wash the product thoroughly by hand.

USING THE COOKWARE

This item is suitable exclusively for use on cooking surfaces, including induction cookers. For optimal energy efficiency, it is advisable to place the product on the rings of the cooking surface that are of equivalent size to its base. It is important to avoid flames touching the sides or handles. To extend the product's life, it is recommended to use utensils made of silicone, wood, or nylon and not to use metal utensils. Avoid overheating the product and do not let the water completely evaporate, as well as never leaving the product unattended during use.

It is normal for the non-stick coating to discolour, but this will not affect the product's functionality. To prevent damage to ceramic cooking surfaces, it is always better to lift the product rather than drag it across the surface. It is advisable to periodically check that the screws have not loosened over time, retightening them with a screwdriver with the utmost care.

CLEANING AND STORING THE COOKWARE

For cleaning and storage, it is important to allow the product to cool down before proceeding. The product is dishwasher safe with a mild detergent, or it can be washed by hand using a mild detergent and a non-abrasive sponge, followed by a thorough rinse and drying. Do not store the product while it is still damp.

CAUTION
