Designed for lightweight comfort and reliable protection, the DRIFIRE Helix FR Long Sleeve Henley delivers inherent flame resistance with breathable, moisture-wicking performance. Its soft knit fabric keeps you cool and dry on long shifts, while the raglan sleeves allow for less restrictive movement.

- Dual Hazard protection against arc flash and flash fire
- Lightweight and breathable fabric
- High stretch soft fabric offers additional comfort
- Left front chest pocket
- Tagless neckline for no-rub comfort
- Quickly identify compliance with exterior labeling
- Raglan sleeves for increased mobility
