

CARBONX® LEVEL 10

FIRE RESISTANT HAND PROTECTION

Shield your hands during safety, rescue and fueling operations and be prepared for anything on race day. The CarbonX® Level 10 is constructed with genuine leather and backed with three top layers of fire-retardant CarbonX® stretch-knit with SFI level 10 protection. The high-density accordion knuckle padding protects your hands from impact hazards, while the extended elastic cuff holds the glove securely in place.

Meets or exceeds SFI 3.3/10 & ARC 22.2 specifications.
