

TRAUMA2

TOURNIQUET

ITEM 3135

The Dynarex DynaSafety Trauma2 Tourniquet is a windlass system designed to stop bleeding in the arms or legs in acute bleeding emergencies. The adjustable Tourniquet is designed to provide convenient one-handed operation and features a writing surface to record the time of application.

- Premium quality limb-trauma care device designed for use in extreme bleeding emergencies
- Features windlass rod system to temporarily stop blood flow at arms or legs
- Designed for effective one-handed operation
- Adjustable tourniquet is lockable at each 90-degree rotation
- Features writing space to record application time
- High-quality stitching and nylon buckle for optimal durability
- Nylon belt with hook-and-loop closures allow for optimal adjustability
- Lightweight and compact for easy portability and storage
- Does not contain natural rubber latex
- 50 per case

