Catch the Puppies!

“Catch the puppies!” shouted Pip. “Quick, the puppies are escaping!” shouted Kat.

“What is all the noise about?” asked the two ladies who were sitting at the park.

“Our puppies broke off their leads and they ran off,” said Pip.

The puppies stop to roll around in the grass, next to some big trees. “Look at them, playing like babies in the daisies,” said Kat.

“Kat worries that they will not come home,” said Pip. One lady hurries over to the puppies. “Just give them a pat and put the leads back on,” she said.

Kat and Pip creep up to the puppies.
A butterfly flies past. The puppies are off again, chasing the butterfly. “Oh no, come back puppies!” shouted Kat.

The girls chase the puppies down a hill. The puppies are now sniffing around a huge bush of blackberries. “Oh no, we will never get them home now,” said Pip.

The puppies come out of the bushes, covered in squashed blackberries. “Come on puppies, let’s get you cleaned up and home again,” said the girls. The puppies give the girls some big puppy blackberry licks. It makes the girls giggle.
